

Succession Law and Estate Litigation

ZAG's Litigation and Dispute Resolution department specializes in the representation of heirs and beneficiaries in wills regarding disputes with succession law and the distribution of assets.

Our firm provides advice and guidance in opposing probate orders, upholding wills that are challenged, disputes over administering estates, unique disputes regarding succession of land in cooperative settlements in Israel (moshavs), and more.

Our lawyers are well versed in the procedures and workings at the Family Courts, always paying close attention to the sensitive nature of cases of this kind.
