

Erez Aharoni

Founder & Managing Director

Tel Aviv

972-3-7955522

aharonie@zag-sw.co.il

Practices

- Corporate
- Litigation
- Real Estate

About

Erez Aharoni is one of the founding partners of the international law firm ZAG-S&W. He holds the position of the firm's managing partner.

Erez has gained prominence in the fields of commercial law, litigation, and real estate. He handles the various legal aspects of complex commercial transactions and has extensive experience in large-scale real estate transactions, both on a domestic and international level.

Erez is also a recognized expert on legal and commercial aspects of media and communications law in Israel and has significant experience in a wide range of legal issues related to civil and commercial litigation and has amassed invaluable practical experience in these fields.

He has also served as liquidator and trustee for large corporations and institutional investors, appointed an officer of the court for these purposes.

Publications

Erez published three books he wrote:

"Half a mustache" published by Maariv, 2006.

"The Eagle's Secret" published by Kinneret Zmora-Bitan, 2009.

"Fire in a Haystack" published by Kinneret Zmora-Bitan, 2011.

Education

- LL.B., from Tel Aviv University

Bar Admissions

- Israel, 1985